STATEMENT OF FAITH

1. The Statement of Faith articulates both an evangelical and Pentecostal doctrinal position. The following is a summary of the Statement of Faith:
2. The Church believes that the Holy Bible consisting of sixty-six books including the Old and the New Testament, is the inspired Word of God, a revelation from God to Man, concerning the will of God in all things necessary to our faith, conduct and salvation, so that whatever is not contained therein is not to be enjoined as an article of faith.
3. It believes in one God, eternally existing in three persons (Trinity), namely the God the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost.
4. It believes that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, was conceived by the Holy Spirit, and born of the virgin Mary. It also believes in Christ's Death, burial, resurrection, and ascension.
5. It believes that man was created in the image and likeness of God, but fell by voluntary transgression and his only hope of redemption and salvation is in Jesus Christ; that all have sinned and come short of the glory of God, that repentance is commanded of God for all, and is necessary for forgiveness of sin; that salvation, new birth and justification are wrought by the grace of God, and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and the renewing work of the Holy Ghost.
6. It believes in the ordinance of believer's baptism by immersion, in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, for all who repent and believe Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord.
7. It believes that all believers are entitled to and earnestly seek the promise of the Father, the Baptism in the Holy Spirit according to the command of our Lord Jesus Christ; that the full consummation of the Baptism of the believers in the Holy Spirit is evidenced by the initial sign of speaking in tongues and subsequent manifestation of the Spiritual gifts and Fruit of the Holy Spirit.
8. It believes that the Lord's Supper, consisting of the elements of bread and the fruit of the wine, is a memorial of His sufferings and death
9. It believes that the deliverance from sickness is provided for all in Christ's atonement and is the privilege of all believers, and the anointing of the sick with oil for Divine healing and the laying on of hands.
10. It believes in the pre-millennial Second Coming of Christ
11. It believes in the promise of new heavens and a new earth wherein the righteous will dwell.
12. We believe in Jesus Great Commission and the Mission of the Church, in order to carry its mission, we need to proclaim the message of Jesus Christ, He is the one and only way to the Salvation. Apart from Him there is no other salvation

Online. If you want or need to stay where you are while you pursue your seminary degree, JTCS offers the same courses in an online format that allows you to learn from your home or any remote location that has internet access. Online courses are ideal for students who:

- ❖ Can't uproot their lives and move to our JTCS campus.
- ❖ Are already working in a ministry setting and want to pursue a seminary degree while continuing in their current ministry role.
- ❖ Express themselves better through written words than through spoken words.

On-Site Hybrid. Hybrid courses combine the convenience of online education with the deeper relational connection of a classroom education. It's the best of both worlds! With hybrid courses, half of the course content is delivered online and the other half is delivered in one or two intensive onsite sessions—where you'll gather with the professor and other students enrolled in the course at our JTCS campus. Each onsite intensive session allows you to have face-to-face interactions with faculty and students. They generally convene from Thursday to Saturday. Hybrid courses are ideal for students who:

- ❖ Can't uproot their lives and move to JTCS, but desire to develop deeper, face-to-face relationships with faculty and other students.
- ❖ Want the convenience of an online education but also want to grow more holistically (spirit, mind, and body) with other adult students who are in a similar place of life.

- ❖ Want the convenience of online courses, but desire more relational support from JTCS Seminary’s faculty, staff, and other adult students.

Whether you attend in JTCS, or online, you can design an experience to fit with your life and calling. To learn more, call 09447421831. and ask for information on the Online program.

Adaptable to fit your life

Our flexible model is designed to give you the options that work best for you, while also providing you structure to keep you on track.

Our programs are designed so that you can fit them into your busy schedule. Though our courses include interactive discussion forums, you won’t be required to be available for “live” online meetings, allowing you to complete your reading, writing, and discussion posts when it works in your schedule.

Regular due dates for assignments throughout the semester keep you accountable in your progress, and ensure that online discussions are interactive. Students can take classes year-round, with terms starting in December

The course requirements for our distance and residential programs are the same, meaning that students often switch from one format to another at some point during their program.
